

April 10, 1974

CLERK: Final reading.

PRESIDENT: Once again, the Chair would inquire, have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: Forty-six ayes; no nays and three not voting.

PRESIDENT: The bill has passed with the emergency clause attached.

CLERK: LB 1057 and 1058 were correctly enrolled.

PRESIDENT: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I have signed LB 1057 and 1058. Now, after a quick check, we find that 1049 is five pages long; 787 is two and we know you have a luncheon invitation. I think, however, that the reason we should go ahead and read these two is because it is important that they get to the Governor's office. The Clerk will begin the reading of LB 1049.

CLERK: Final reading.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor, vote aye; those opposed, vote nay. Voting on the final passage of LB 1049. Once again, have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

PRESIDENT: Senator Mahoney voting aye. DeCamp voting aye. Thank you.

CLERK: Forty-four ayes; no nays and five not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The bill has passed with the emergency clause attached. Attention please for the final reading of LB 787.

CLERK: Final reading.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor, vote aye; all those opposed, vote nay. Voting on the final passage of LB 787. Alright, once again, have you all voted? Okay, the Clerk will record.

CLERK: Forty-six ayes; no nays and three not voting.

PRESIDENT: The bill has passed with the emergency clause attached.

CLERK: LB 1059 was correctly enrolled.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I have signed the following bill: LB 1059.

CLERK: Mr. President, unanimous consent to bracket LB 254 on final readings. Signed, Senator Marsh.

PRESIDENT: 254?

CLERK: 254A.
